MR. ROBINSON

We are proud to honor you, Mr. Harold Robinson, who as teacher and advisor, has contributed much to the growth of the students at Mansfield Senior High School.

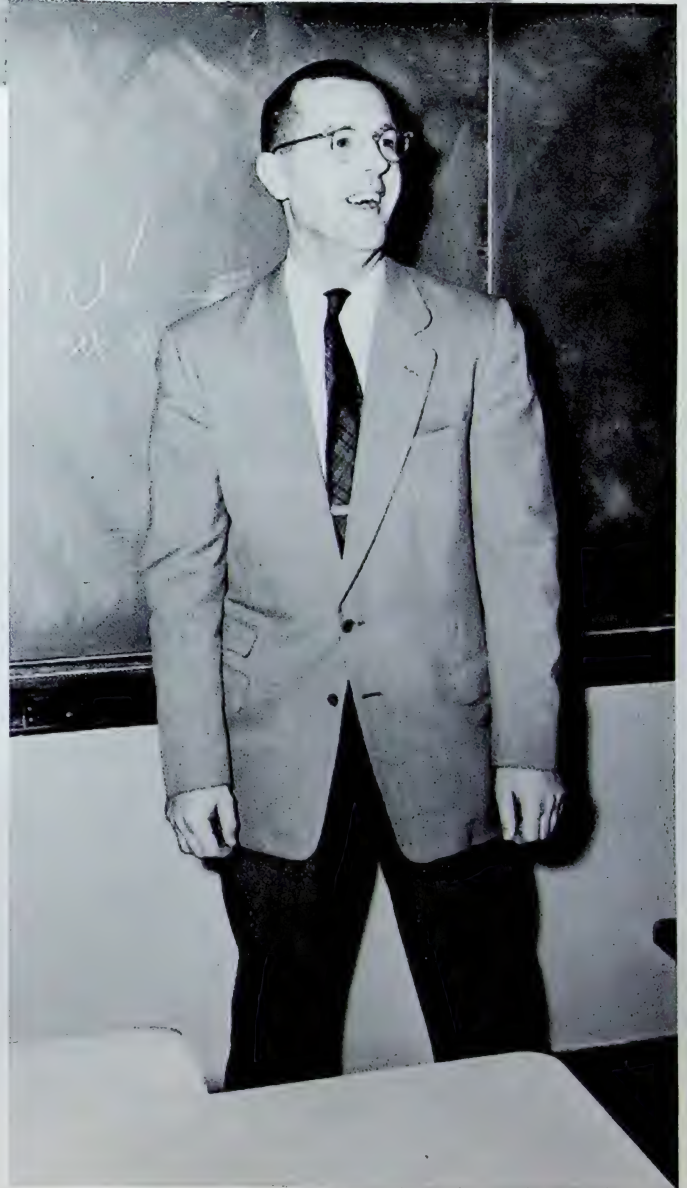

DEDICATION

You have spent many enduring hours of work with your Hyphonerian staff to produce each successful issue of the school paper.

Your personality has often brought a spark of laughter and inspiration into the lives of your students.

It is therefore with pride that we dedicate the 1960 Manhigan to you as a token of our appreciation for a job well done.

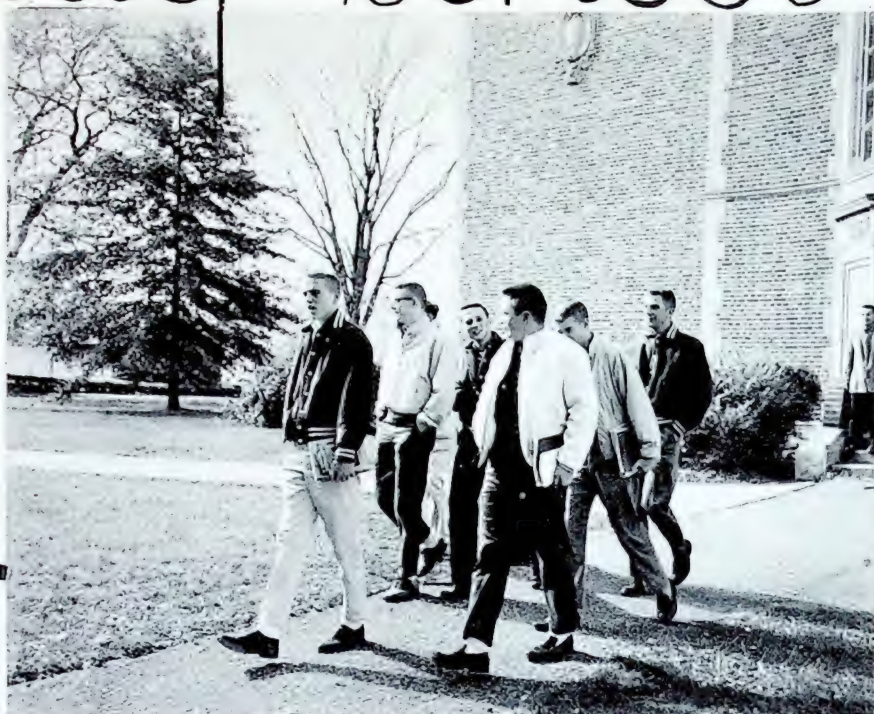

Autumn

1^{st.} day of school

The first few weeks are the roughest. Getting adjusted to new classes and teachers is no easy task.

During these weeks the football program is put into full swing. The players are introduced to the student body, Pep Club officers are elected and the Cheerleaders add spark to the first game.

The night of the first game had finally come; however, the young Tygers could not hold back Cleveland East.

Varsity Band

Mr. Percy Hall

Under the direction of Mr. Percy Hall and Mr. Koste Belcheff, the Varsity Band added color and zest to the fall season with their weekly appearance at the football games. Also included in the fall activities of the band was their trip to Cleveland. For the first time in the history of the Mansfield Tyger Marching Band, the high stepping group went professional. They gave a unique display of their talent at the half-time of a Cleveland Brown's football game. Their appearance proved to be a very successful event which the band members will remember for a long time.

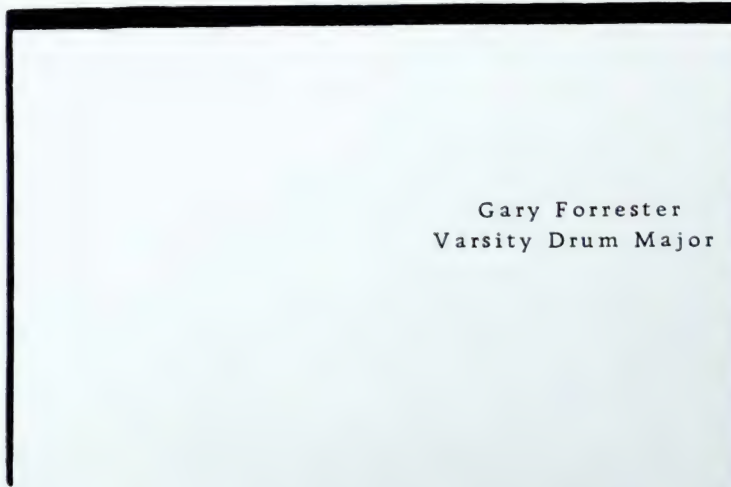

Mr. Koste Belcheff

Our band took a back seat to none at the football games this year. Even though we were behind at half time, our band always restored our fighting spirit.

Sallee Cummins, Sarah Evans, and Georgeann Warner

Sallee Cummins was captain of the varsity cheerleaders for the '59 - '60 school year. These cheerleaders, under the supervision of Mrs. Eddy, have served our school well by cheering at all games and doing their best to create pep and enthusiasm throughout the year.

CANDIDATES FOR PEP CLUB OFFICES

PEP CLUB

This year the M.H.S. Pep Club, advised by Mrs. Vern Hoffman, was headed by Tom Hout, President; Paula Mitchell, Vice President; Sharon Radler, Secretary; and Sarah Evans, Treasurer. Pep Club projects were selling shakers and pennants, decorating goal posts, organizing the pep section at football games, and sponsoring pep assemblies.

OPEN HOUSE

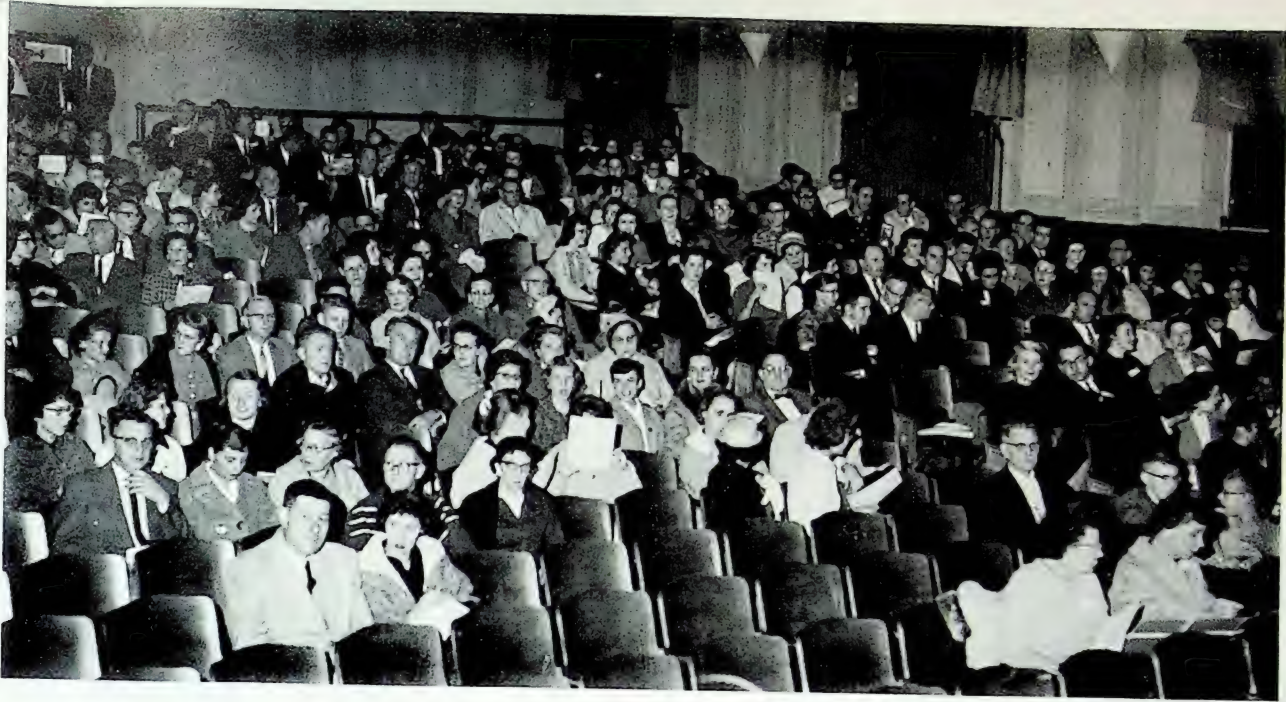

Parents were given the opportunity at Open House to talk with each of their child's teachers by following the child's daily schedule. Many parents proved that they were really interested in the education of their children.

Mr. Thomas explains posters made by American History students.

COLLEGE NIGHT

Many M.H.S. students took advantage of the annual college night again this year. Academic students set aside this one night in the fall to hear representatives from numerous colleges who acquaint the students with the set up at their particular college.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING

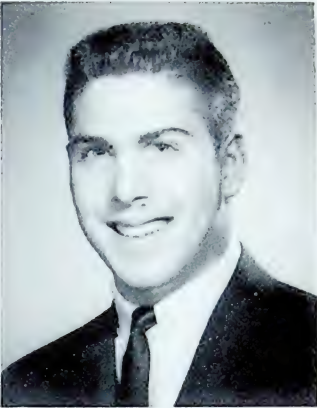

The qualities of being a good leader were discussed over a six week period at the Leadership Training Course, co-sponsored by the Student Council and Key Club. Men and women of various professions presented their views on the subject to the students from the high school.

GIRLS' STATE AND BOYS' STATE

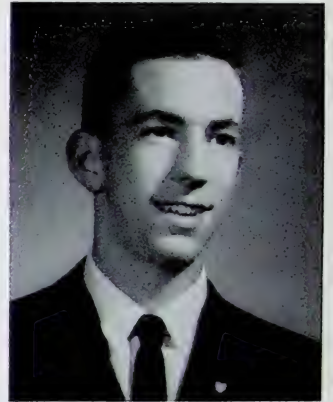

MARK LAPINE
Lawyer

"Mr. Speaker, I move the House adopt the following rules:" -- a phrase familiar to the young politicians who attended Boys' or Girls' State during the summer.

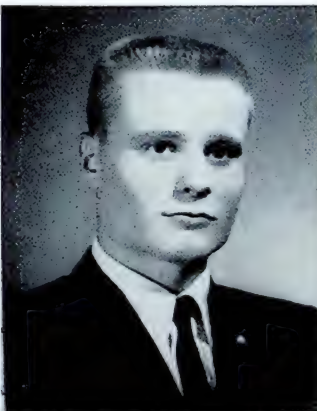

Girls from elected high schools in Ohio attend Girls' State at Capital University and boys go to Ohio University to establish Boys' State.

Boys' and Girls' States are modeled after the Ohio government in every detail. The citizens campaign for various offices, state, county, or municipal.

Sara ran for city dog-catcher but evidently her track experience was not sufficient to get her into office. The law firm, Wagner and Lapine, waged an excellent prosecution against Highway Patrolman, Dave Blizzard, for breaking and entering. Tom and Joe, although they drew opposite political parties, together carried on several fiery and successful debates in the House of Representatives.

Mansfield Tygers are the

The 1960 Tygers had a bigger cheering section than ever before!

The "M" Section appeared at all home and tournament games letting everyone know that: "We're from Mansfield, - MIGHTY - MIGHTY Mansfield!"

The Student Body backed the Tygers, also. They helped to carry out the traditional "Red and White" days, came to the Pep Assemblies, and r-e-a-l-l-y yelled at all games.

The cheerleaders "gave a beat" to the games; and besides leading cheers, added much to the color and excitement of basketball.

Encouragement from the sidelines was not uncommon either. Indeed, the year 1959 - 1960 saw school spirit at M.H.S.!

Richard Remy heads the Freshman Hi-Y which met on Wednesday at the Y.M.C.A. Dan Rethun served as vice-president, Andy Rust was secretary, Don Knapp was treasurer, and Steve Lewis was Chaplain of the organization. Chuck Anderson advises this group. During this past year the boys have had several service and money-making projects.

Tim Beard, Bill Locke, Chuck Oberlin, Paul Chamberlin.

SOPHOMORE HI-Y

This group of boys has been quite busy this year. In order to adhere to the high standards which they have set they have had several projects this year. These projects included: (1) gathering food for a Christmas basket, (2) a car wash, and (3) the selling of "M" cushions during the football season. The purpose of this group is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school, home, and community, high standards of Christian character. The boys' advisor was Mr. Jack Pollock.

SENIOR Y-TEENS

A trip to Cleveland highlighted the year for the Senior Y-Teens. Selling dish clothes and candy, having three bake sales and a pop bottle drive were some more of their activities. They served the community by making favors for the hospitals, baby sitting for the P.T.A., and reading to the children in the hospitals. Joan Maginess advised the girls.

Officers: Evans, Maginess, Bourns, Reiter, Heston.

Officers: Black, Mintz, McConnell, Doerr.

JUNIOR Y-TEENS

During the year, the Junior Y-Teens have had many projects. Among them were a hanger drive, Christmas baskets, decorations for the formal, and style show. Candy Mintz was president, with Becky Black, Dawn Doerr, Sherry Rupp, Connie McConnell, and Nancy Winder, assisting her. The club's purpose is "To grow as a person. To grow in friendship with people of all races, religions, and nationalities. To grow in the knowledge and love of God."

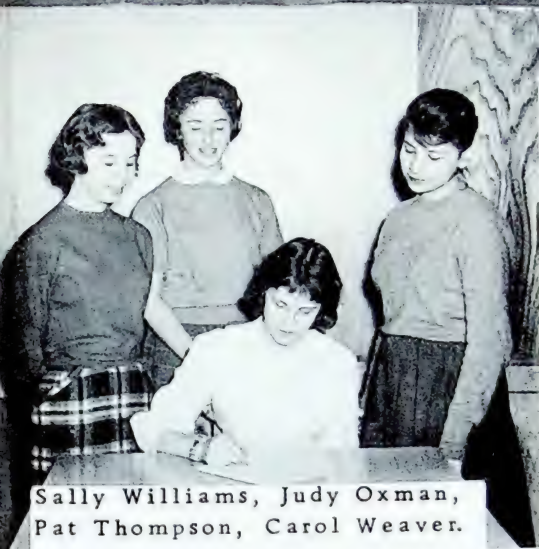

SOPHOMORE Y-TEENS

The Sophomore Y-Teens have had several interesting and worthwhile service projects this year. Among these projects are:

1. Collecting toys and games for children at the hospitals.
2. Coloring easter eggs for the hospitals at Easter time.

The girls also had a bake sale as a money-making project this year.

SENIOR CLASS of '60 PRESENTS

It's a happy ending for Belgravia (Hope Lawrence) when Waldorf (Sandy Mitchell) changes back into a manikin.

The play "Man Alive" combines reality with fantasy. It is here assumed that manikins in store windows have thoughts, feelings, and powers of perception quite as keen as those of human beings. Furthermore, they can speak--just to other manikins, of course.

But!!! When one of these manikins is transformed into a human being, through a minor accident, life in Hathaway's Department Store is thrown into utter confusion!!!

CLASS PLAY

Our Senior Class Play was one of the best ever.

Mr. Hathaway demands to know the meaning of the confusion in his store window.

Miss Yates (Pat Neal) and George (Rick Stander) adjust the manikins in Hathaway's window.

Waldorf (Sandy Mitchell) startles Daphne (Barb Teale) when he comes to life and kisses her.

A toast to "Gay Paris."

The French students in Les Jaseurs, meaning "The Chatterers", must live up to their name for more than one reason.

1. This club is made up entirely of girls.

2. The purpose of the club is to better the girls' usage of conversational French.

They also are trying to better understand French customs and traditions. The girls under the leadership of their capable officers; Hope Lawrence, president; Jill Miller, vice-president; Betty Watson, secretary; and Charlene Moore, treasurer, have tried to carry out their purpose. During this year Les Jaseurs had a progressive dinner. They served only French foods and had each course at a different members home.

The Hyphonerian, the voice of our school, was under competent leadership this year. Informative, educational, and entertaining are some of the fine qualities that can be attributed to our school paper. Such outstanding issues as the one on the first of April will be remembered by all. Indeed, the Hypho Staff is to be congratulated for their excellent work.

ANNUAL JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT FAIR

A J. A. Company in Production.

The purpose of "J. A." is to give high school students between the ages of 15 and 19 the opportunity to gain valuable and practicable pre-business experiences by organizing and operating their own small-scale business. Or you might say "J. A." strives to teach the free enterprise system of doing business. J. A. has an Open House and Trade Fair yearly. The Future Unlimited Banquet for presentation of awards was held at the end of the year. Mr. Robert A. Lee is the head advisor of J. A. in North Central Ohio.

Please buy one!

Thank you!

Diversified Cooperative Training

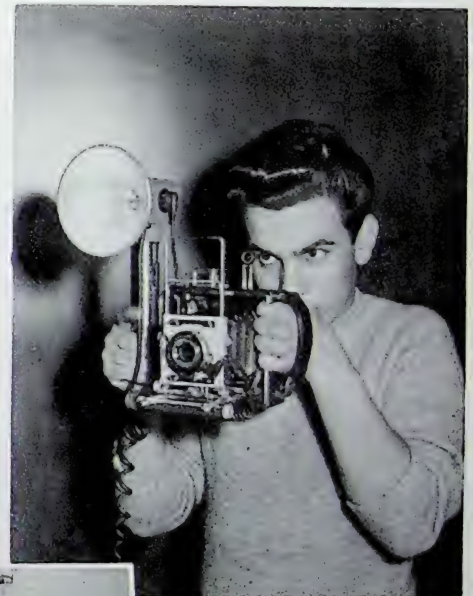

The students in Diversified Co-op Training are provided with opportunities for the development of leadership in civic, social, and industrial pursuits. The officers were Dave McBride, Ruth Heitchler, Pat Fain, Correne Vandlick, and Karmen Munson. The group, advised by Mr. Harry Davis, attended the annual state convention of such clubs in April.

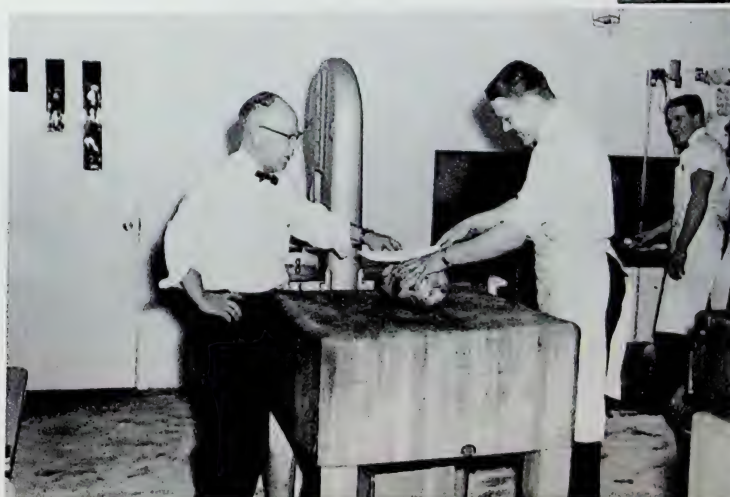

Pat Fain, as a dental assistant.

Howard Hawk, working in a garage as a part of D.C.T.

Ron Kuppinger, working for a photographer for D. C. T.

Robert Hoffman, learning the meat cutting process.

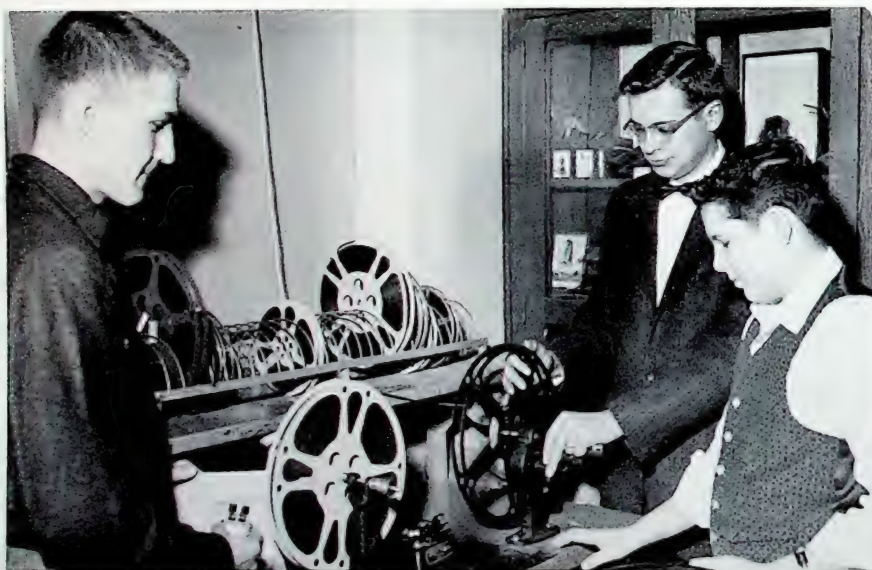

AUDIO

VISUAL

Round and round it goes, where it stops nobody knows!

You say the sound comes out here?!

This group of boys is one of the busiest clubs at Mansfield Senior High. Under the leadership of their president, Ricky Heckert; their vice-president, Bob Taylor; and their secretary-treasurer Bob Knight, the Boys carry on their various duties with great efficiency. These duties include:

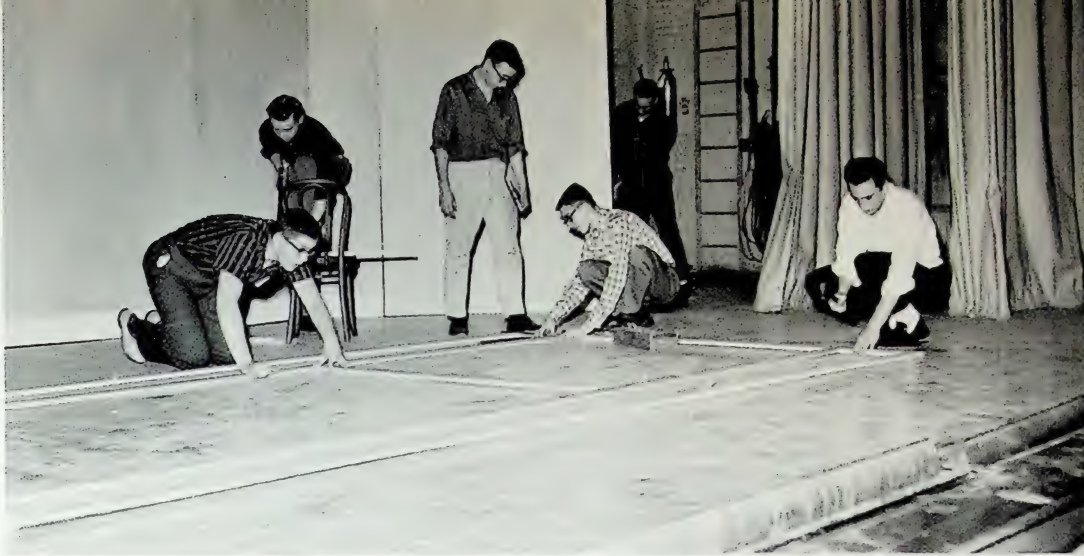

1. Showing all film strips in classrooms.
2. Setting up equipment for tape recordings.
3. Repairing torn films, tapes, etc.

They also have several money-making projects during the year. The money they earn is used to buy more equipment for the school.

FUTURE NURSES

Trips to hospitals in Akron and Columbus were taken during the year to acquaint and interest girls with the different fields of nursing. They had movies and lectures at the Nurses Home and visited the Crippled Children's Hospital. A bake sale was held to earn money for the year-end picnic in May. Mrs. Robert Tawse advised the girls.

Seated - Carole Adams, President.
Standing - Pat Ohly, Vice-President;
Barb Garber, Secretary;
Nancy Long, Treasurer.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

This year the Junior Red Cross has aided many people in every sort of need. Advised by Miss Ann Buchwalter, the group donated much service to the Blood-mobile on its tour through Mansfield. Also, they made a paper-back book collection for the hospital. Elected to head the group were Bob Evans, Bonnie Fillweber, Charlotte Walter, and Barbara Armstrong.

ROW 1: Bob Evans, Bonnie Fillweber, Miss Buchwalter, Barbara Armstrong, Charlotte Walter.

YOUTH

CHRIST

ROW 2: Peg Allen, Vice-president, Karen Michener, Secretary-Treasurer; and Eleanor Shook, city reporter.

To grow in character, to reach un-churched students and to encourage fellowship and social life on a Christian level in the lives of teenagers is the purpose of this group. A convention in Washington D. C. was held in December and a Junior-Senior Banquet was held in May.

Youth for Christ group at a convention in Washington during Christmas vacation.

VOCATIONAL CLUB

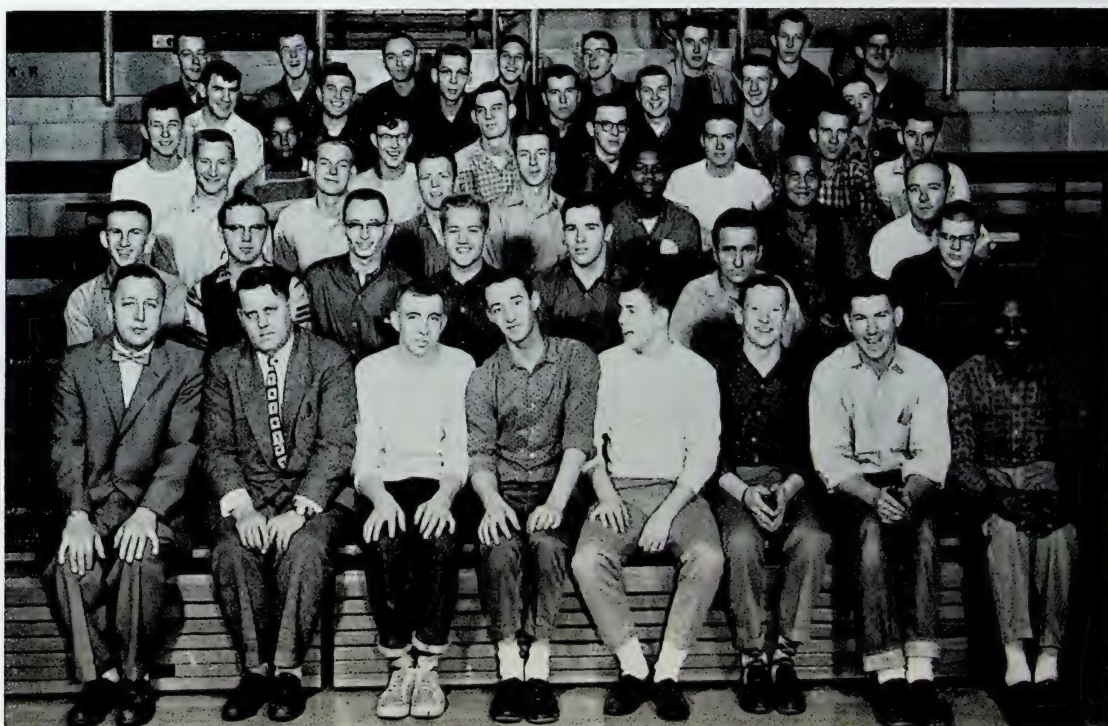

Boys working in the Auto Shop.

ROW 1: Mr. Cooper, Bob Walker, Mr. Hoffer.
ROW 2: Duane Moore, Jim Vollmer, Dave Duncan.

The Vocational Club broadened the knowledge of the students in the field of their chosen profession. Advised by Mr. Joseph Hoffer and Mr. W. E. Cook, this organization benefited those who participate in the various vocational courses. The officers were Bob Walker, Duane Moore, Jim Vollmer, and Dave Duncan.

ADMINISTRATION & FACULTY

Dr. John S. Rinehart
Superintendent of Schools

As administrative head of Mansfield's public schools, Dr. John Rinehart has endeavored to bring to Mansfield the best possible instruction and facilities available. He is constantly working toward the manifestation of the trust places in him by the school board and citizens of Mansfield. In the two years that Dr. Rinehart has been in Mansfield, progress toward higher standards in education is clearly evidenced around us.

Mr. Edwin D. Fensch
Asst. Superintendent

Thomas E. Hariston
Asst. Superintendent

L. L. Mishey
Asst. Superintendent

IN MEMORIUM

Dr. Max Garber served his community well. As president of the Mansfield Board of Education he gave unselfishly of his time and talents to the problems of our intricate school system.

His untimely death was a great loss to the community and school.

First row: David McGinty, Vice-President, Irene Wenning, member, Burton Preston, President.

ROBERT E. GLASS
Principal

The students at Mansfield Senior High can be proud of their achievements, many of which are recorded in this Year-book. The high school administration and faculty are proud of the citizenship of our students both in school and in the Community.

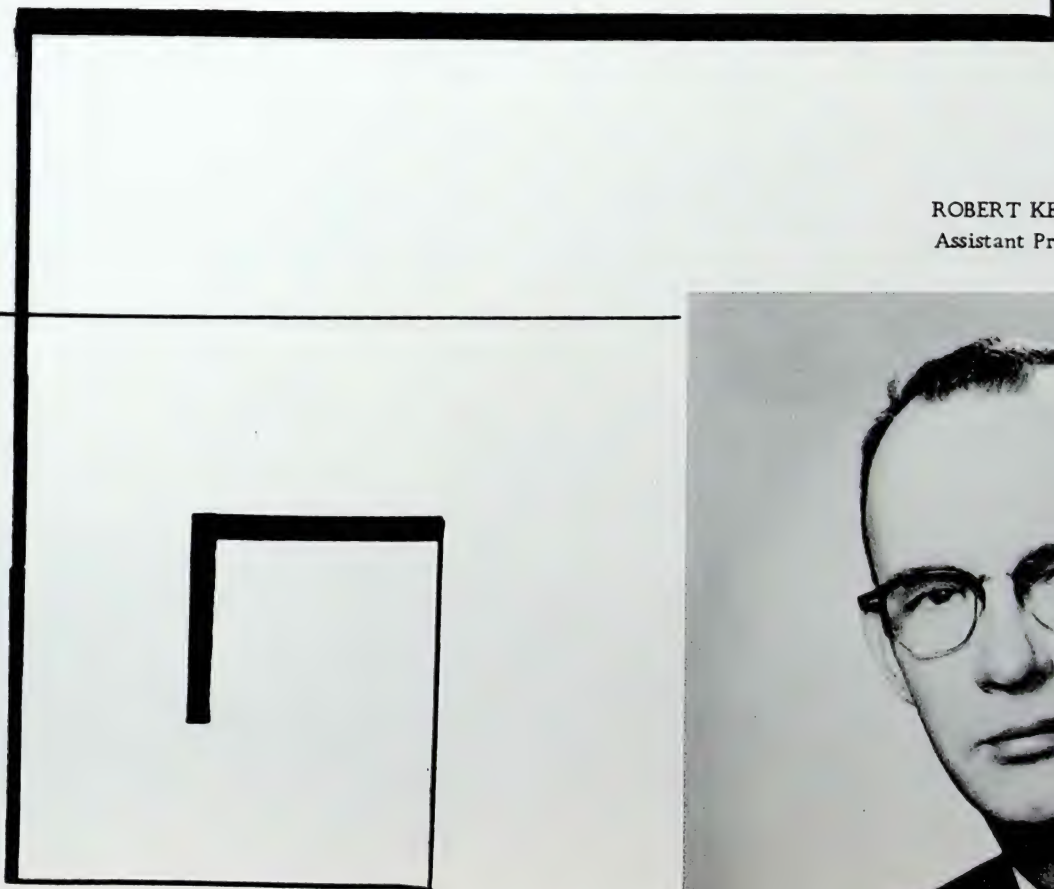

I would like to leave this thought with you. The real satisfaction of life comes from the realization of a job well done.
